8/9 October 2022

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman returned to Elisha, the prophet, and acknowledged the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

THE LORD HAS REVEALED TO THE NATIONS
HIS SAVING POWER.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

If we hold firm, we shall reign with Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God,
because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

It seems that no one has returned to give thanks to God except this foreigner.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

The leprosy of Naaman and the ten men in the gospel serves as a metaphor for sinfulness, the condition that makes us unfit for the presence of God and despicable in the eyes of others. Separated from God and alienated from society, we are truly in a deplorable state, a state out of which we are unable to extricate ourselves. Into these seemingly hopeless conditions step the prophet Elisha and Jesus. Each in his own way brings the healing power of God, the saving grace of God. Paul is such a mediator as well. He brings the gospel to those who are in need of salvation. When people are open to his preaching, they are transformed and made ready to receive eternal glory.

After healing come gratitude and praise. Both Naaman and the lone Samaritan are so filled with gratitude that they return to the one responsible for their healing. They are not so preoccupied with their good fortune as to forget that it came to them as a gift. Their response is the kind of thanks and praise that is proclaimed in the psalm and that is also celebrated at each Sunday Eucharist. We have been saved from our alienation from God and from each other so let us give thanks to the Lord.

Those who know that they have been healed, who realize that this was a gift freely given to them, and who return to give thanks have, by these acts of devotion, stepped over a threshold into a new way of living. Their thanks and praise usher them into a new age, the age of eschatological promise.

Please support this fundraiser to assist our parish

Our Parish Collection for the Catholic Mission will be held on Weekend 22nd/23 October, 2022.

This year's Catholic Mission Church Appeal continues our support for the people of Ethiopia.

Through this appeal, Catholic Mission invites parishioners to follow the call of mission by supporting the community of Emdibir.

This year, Pope Francis writes in his Message for the World Mission Day 2022, "mission is carried out together, not individually, in communion with the ecclesial community and not on one's own initiative".

It is in this spirit that Catholic Mission invites parishioners in every diocese in Australia to join with us and support our brothers and sisters in Ethiopia.

125th Anniversary of Consecration – St Patrick's Cathedral

As we celebrate our 175th Anniversary year as a diocese – we also mark a significant milestone for our Cathedral. Archbishop Comensoli warmly invites you to join him for Mass to celebrate the 125th Anniversary of the Consecration of St Patrick's – Thursday 27 October 2022 at St Patrick's Cathedral, commencing at 1pm. This is a beautiful opportunity to come together in the house of the Lord – built by the faithful and generous people from every part of our Archdiocese, and home for all. Mass will be followed by the Launch of the Catholic Precinct Walking Tour App, an initiative of the Mary Glowrey Museum.

Sacred Heart Girls' College Oakleigh is celebrating 65 years since our foundation. All former students and staff of the College are warmly invited to join us for afternoon tea and a tour on Sunday, 16 October between 2pm and 4.30 pm. To book your place, please go to:
