33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Malachi 3:19-20

The sun of righteousness will shine on you.

Responsorial Psalm:

THE LORD COMES TO RULE THE EARTH WITH JUSTICE.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Do not give anyone food who refuses to work.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lift up your heads and see;
your redemption is near at hand.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

Your endurance will win you your life.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

The Day of the Lord was believed to be the time when God would come in majesty and power to set all things right. We must remember that the descriptions in today's readings are metaphoric or symbolic in nature. As with all metaphors or symbols, we miss something of their profound meaning if we merely understand them literally. It is not helpful to relate elements of the description with particular aspects of the contemporary world. Belief in the Day of the Lord is a way of testifying to our faith in the righteousness of God.

Although the narrative readings for today concentrate on the disruptions that will accompany the coming of God, they also contain hints of the salvation that will finally arrive. Malachi speaks of the sun of justice that comes with healing rays; Luke promises that the faithful disciples will escape without a hair of their heads being destroyed. Just as the descriptions of the upheavals should not be understood literally, neither should these descriptions. It may be that the faithful followers of Jesus will suffer terrible agonies. The point here is that even in the midst of their pain, they will be protected. The healing rays of justice and the rescue of the lives of the upright are references to salvation. God does not come at the end to condemn, but to save. Furthermore, the suffering that precedes the end is intended for purification and refinement, not punishment. Christians are exhorted to live in this endtime with patient endurance of difficulties.

Important Notice – Safeguarding Essential Online Training for All Our Parish Volunteers

As an important part of our commitment to child safety, all volunteers in ministries and groups of our parish, are required to complete a 30-minute Safeguarding Essential Online Training Module.

The purpose of this training is to provide our volunteers with:

- foundational knowledge that will help volunteers to perform their roles.
- a clear understanding of their duty of care and of expectations with regards to safeguarding children, young people and adults from all forms of abuse and harm.

This will be:

- an annual requirement for all volunteers
- possible to complete individually online

At the completion of the training:

- volunteers will receive a certificate of completion
- the parish will also receive notification that the module has been completed successfully.

How to get started

- to access the online training go to: www.safeguarding.melbournecatholic.org
- to login, each volunteer will need their unique Working with Children Check ID and an email address.

To register, volunteers will need to select their parish from the dropdown menu as their Primary Organisation of Service.

Each registered user will receive:

- a certificate via email, once the quiz has been successfully completed.
- an annual reminder to complete the course.

Our parish will also be organising a group session for those volunteers who are unable to complete the online training. Group sessions will be on 17 November, Thursday at 6:20pm in the Church, and also on 13 and 20 November, Sunday at 10:30am.

The importance of training volunteers has been articulated in the Victorian Child Safe Standards, the National Catholic Safeguarding Standards and the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations on which the CAM Safeguarding and Wellbeing Policy for Children and Young People is based.

Thank you very much for your cooperation!
