SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Both the reading from Maccabees and the passage from the gospel speak of resurrection. The first is a testimony of faith, the second demonstrates a measure of scorn that accompanies unbelief. Belief in resurrection is not the same as the conviction of the immortality of the soul. The latter is based on the makeup of the human person; the former rests on the fidelity of God. The doctrine of resurrection is grounded in the concept of covenant, which claims that God has established a relationship with human beings. At issue is whether or not death is powerful enough to break the ties that bind us in covenant with God. Jesus says 'No!'

If this is the future that awaits us, how are we to live until it dawns? Actually, it has already dawned. This is the eschatological hope in which we live by the grace given us from God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Our future is already present and, therefore, we are called to live lives that have been radically transformed. However, the future has not yet completely dawned, and so we find ourselves living both in this age and in the age to come. Thus we live future lives, but we live them in the present. As difficult as this may be, we have the promise that the Lord will strengthen us and guard us. We have the instruction of our religious tradition that directs our minds and hearts. When we live lives of the future, we truly enable that future to dawn in the present.

Important Notice – Safeguarding Essential Online Training for All Our Parish Volunteers

As an important part of our commitment to child safety, all volunteers in ministries and groups of our parish, are required to complete a 30-minute Safeguarding Essential Online Training Module.

The purpose of this training is to provide our volunteers with:

- foundational knowledge that will help volunteers to perform their roles.
- a clear understanding of their duty of care and of expectations with regards to safeguarding children, young people and adults from all forms of abuse and harm.

This will be:

- an annual requirement for all volunteers
- possible to complete individually online

At the completion of the training:

- volunteers will receive a certificate of completion
- the parish will also receive notification that the module has been completed successfully.

How to get started

- to access the online training go to: www.safeguarding.melbournecatholic.org
- to login, each volunteer will need their unique Working with Children Check ID and an email address.

To register, volunteers will need to select their parish from the dropdown menu as their Primary Organisation of Service.

Each registered user will receive:

- a certificate via email, once the quiz has been successfully completed.
- an annual reminder to complete the course.

Our parish will also be organising a group session for those volunteers who are unable to complete the online training. Group sessions will be on 17 November, Thursday at 6:20pm in the Church, and also on 13 and 20 November, Sunday at 10:30am.

The importance of training volunteers has been articulated in the Victorian Child Safe Standards, the National Catholic Safeguarding Standards and the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations on which the CAM Safeguarding and Wellbeing Policy for Children and Young People is based.

Thank you very much for your cooperation!
